Editorial Mother

By Hattie Ingram

"My mother was the making of me. She was so true and so sure of me, I felt I had someone to live for—someone I must not dare disappoint. The memory of my mother will always be a blessing to me."
—Thomas Edison

If there's one name that speaks volumes without the utterance of a single word, it's that of a mother! Its strange how she epitomizes a symbol of everything that God ever wanted a woman to be!

For those of us who were lucky enough to have a mother who took time out of her life to make sure our needs were met, Mother's Day should be particularly important. As we grew up, dad was the one who kept us safe and secure, but mom was the pillow that caught us when we fell.

She could take our pain and fears and make us believe that everything would be all right. She could magically make the pain disappear. Her joy and pride at even our most minor accomplishments made us feel like we could take on the world. Many of us have these kinds of memories. Maybe at one time we took these memories for granted, but as we grow older, we come to appreciate how much our mother loved us and sacrificed to make our lives better. After all, even if your mother wasn't perfect, she did the best she could.

If you are still lucky enough to have your mother in your life, do something special this Mother's Day. Giving a gift is fine, but go beyond that. Write her a card or letter telling her how much it means to you that she is a special mother. Let her know that you love her and appreciate her everyday. Mom deserves at least one day a year to be in the spotlight; a time to be reminded how very much she is loved and needed in your life. Let that day be Mother's Day 2008.

What Does It Take To Be A Man?

By Diane Piggott

Dr. Arnold Hence, Executive Vice President of Forsyth Technical Community College presented the question, "What Does It Take To Be A Man?" during the 61st Annual Men's Day Celebration of New Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday, April 20, 2008. The theme was "Christian Men Rejoicing in Their Commitment of Christ." Deacon Joe Bartley was Worship Leader.

The Men's Day Chorus presented selections of "Be Right" with Mr. Richard Walker on solo and "99½ Won't Do!" with Trustee Gerald Pauling on solo to set the atmosphere for a spirited worship. Dr. Hence came to the pulpit with his rendition of "Nothing But The Blood of Jesus" before taking his text, Matthew 21:12-15. He began, "We get the idea from these scriptures that Christ stood for something. There are many examples of strong men throughout the Bible, naming Job, 3 Hebrew Boys, John the baptist, Paul and Steven to name a few!" He also pointed out, "You aren't a man because you can father a baby!" He outlined several qualities of being a man—1) A clear sense of right or wrong; 2) Courage; 3) Training; 4) Patience; 5) Strong faith; and 6) Humility. He stressed that there are outward manifestations of manhood—"No swishing; watching the company you keep; being a good provider.

The men saluted two of the New Bethel Family. The program was dedicated to the memory of the late Deacon Charles Robinson. Deacon John Posey remarked about his dedication. Deacon James Brown was name "Man of the Year!" He is highlighted in this issue.

Seven Travel To Leaders' Workshop

By Lucille McCormick

The 38th Annual State-Wide Leaders' Workshop of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention of North Carolina met on April 5, 2008 in Charlotte at St. Paul's Baptist Church. Dr. Gregory Moss was host pastor. The theme of this year's convention is "To convince the unconvinced to be convinced... Through Education, Missions and Fellowship: Stand in Love."

New Bethel's delegation consisted of Mrs., Lucille McCormick, Ms. Patricia Mumford, Mrs. Doris Crosby, Ms. Valjean McKinney and Mrs. Alene Davenport to represent the Senior Missionary Department. Ms. Rosa Posey represented the Youth Missionaries. Mr. David Dillard was the van driver.

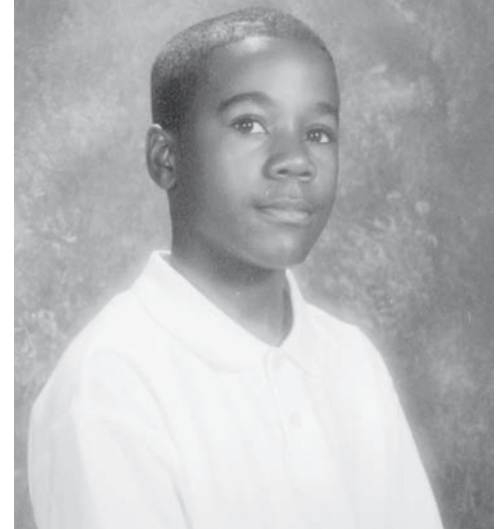

President Bronnie Harris Daniels presided. Worship and praise moments included musical selections, scripture and prayer.

A discussion was held on the "Most Frequently Asked Questions" that a missionary should know, such as, "Who are the officers of the state," "When are sessions held," "Name the districts and groups of the convention." Each member should be aware of the study book, "Trusted Steward." The workshops were taught by First Vice President, Mrs. Audrey Battle, Second Vice President, Rev. Linda Inman, Third Vice President, Mrs. Elizabeth Marrow and Fourth Vice President, Mrs. Ellender W. LeMay. The topics included:

1. Enlisting Church Members to become more active missionaries
2. Encouraging the study of the Bible as a mission book
3. Using books recommended by the Women's Convention to plan projects that would acquaint missionary groups with the community resources
4. Promoting the Bible's plan of giving

The session was informative for all in attendance. Safe travel was granted for our journey. Mrs. Lucille McCormick is president of the Missionary Department at New Bethel, Mrs. Diane Piggott is Director of the Young Adults and Mrs. Sharon Penn is Advisor of the Youth Department.

Thought I would switch from the usual youth article to a simple Christian recipe: Here is how it works. Instead of ingredients being listed, there are scriptures. You need to look up the scriptures and figure out what the ingredient is supposed to be. I have listed the ingredients in tiny print at the bottom, but try to do it without peeking!!!
